

Workshop

„Worldrelations – Humanism – Resonance“

17.04.2023

Arrival

09:00

Welcome/ Introduction

09:15 | Hartmut Rosa/ Bettina Hollstein

How to match ecohumanism and resonance? The limits of New-Materialism

09:30 | Fernando Suarez Muller

Towards an Existential-Phenomenological Approach to Plurality: Resonance and World

10:30 | Bram van Boxtel

Inquiry into the concept of action as relevant part of 'worldviewing'

11:10 | Gesche Keding

(Human) Nature, Sustainability and Resonance

12:10 | Hartmut Rosa

"Past those green temples" - Towards an Eco-Humanist Poetics

12:50 | Emma Weiher

Lunch

13:30

Optional: City Walk "Urban Resources"

14:00 – 16:00 | meeting point: in front of the MWK

Karl Mannheim and the Philosophy of "Weltanschauung"

16:10 | Christoph Henning

Life - a Cultural Ecology of Weltanschauungen

17:10 | Frédéric Vandenberghe

Divided worldrelations: Can sensuousness and intellect be reconciled with regard to resonance?

17:50 | Heinrich Hofer

Workshop co-organised by Hartmut Rosa, Frédéric Vandenberghe (Max-Weber-Kolleg, University of Erfurt) and Fernando Suárez Müller, Bram van Boxtel (University of Humanistic Studies, Utrecht)

Contact:

diana.blanke@uni-erfurt.de

UNIVERSITY OF ERFURT
Max-Weber-Kolleg