

Workshop “Performing Muharram”

June 19th, 1–7 pm | research building “Weltbeziehungen”
rooms C 19.00.02_3 and C19.00.04

Muharram, the first month of the Islamic calendar and Ashura, its 10th day, hold special significance for Muslims, especially the Shia, worldwide.

The international workshop features two panels dedicated to central aspects of the festivities of remembrance and mourning associated with Muharram:

1 - 3 pm |

Panel "Discussing Muharram: Transregional Perspectives"

Panel “Reciting Muharram: Culture(s), Ritual(s), Art” (with music, recitation, and food)
