

A medieval manuscript illustration showing a woman in a green dress sitting on a stool, cooking. She is holding a large, golden, heart-shaped object (possibly a piece of food or a decorative item) and using a long-handled spoon to stir a large, golden, heart-shaped pot hanging over a fire. In the background, there are hanging sausages and a large, dark, conical structure, possibly a chimney or a large pot. The illustration is in a medieval style with gold leaf and red ink.
