

ANNOUNCEMENT

Doctoral Scholarships

The University of Erfurt is a reform university with a strong profile in humanities, educational and social sciences. On a campus nearby the Old Town of Erfurt, doctoral candidates benefit from an innovative promotion, mentoring and an excellent research infrastructure.

The University of Erfurt awards up to seven scholarships from funds of the Thuringian State Graduate Support to doctoral candidates as part of its structured doctoral programme from 1 January 2023.

The doctoral scholarship includes a funding of €1,400 per month with an extra family-allowance (€300 for one / the first child plus €150 for any further child) and are granted for three years. The scholarship can be extended for another year.

Beyond financial support, the University of Erfurt offers its scholarship holders the following benefits:

- support formats for researching and networking with other academics;
- an „Academic Career and Qualification Programme“ to promote interdisciplinary academic expertise;
- platforms to communicate the one's own research to the general public (e.g. Erfurt Science Slam).

Further information on the announcement, the funding requirements and the application documents can be found on the website of the University of Erfurt:
