BRANDT SCHOOL GUEST TALK

Breaking the Silos: Working Across the Humanitarian-Development-Peace Nexus in Conflict Environments

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 2020, 2PM (CET)

Speaker: Henriette von Kaltenborn-Stachau, World Bank

HOSTED BY: PD DR. PATRICK A. MELLO, VISITING SCHOLAR

Conflict situations around the globe are marked by ever increasing complexity. International partners aiming to provide support to affected populations and peace-building processes ought to work across professional and institutional boundaries towards identified collective outcomes. Such concerted partnership efforts can be instrumental in moving conflictual situations towards comprehensive solutions. The guest talk will provide examples to showcase the value and challenges of such partnership approaches.

Henriette von Kaltenborn-Stachau is a Senior Operations Officer in the World Bank's Fragility, Conflict and Violence Unit. She has dedicated her professional life to addressing national and international conflict and worked in some of the most challenging environments, such as Afghanistan, Pakistan, Yemen, Jerusalem, Somalia, Cambodia, East Timor, and Myanmar. Before joining the World Bank, Ms. von Kaltenborn-Stachau worked for the UN Department for Political Affairs. She holds an advanced degree in organizational psychology from the University of Darmstadt, a postgraduate degree in Media Science from the University of Koblenz, and an MA in International Relations and International Economics from The Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS).
