

UNIVERSITÄT ERFURT

Willy Brandt School
of Public Policy

BRANDT SCHOOL GUEST LECTURES SERIES

Multilateral Decision Making: The case of UNESCO

THURSDAY, 08 JULY 2021, 5 PM (CET)

Speaker: Dr Michael Worbs, Ambassador (ret.) & former Chair of the Executive Board of UNESCO

MICHAEL WORBS is a German diplomat. Among other, he served as Ambassador to Kuwait and as Consul General in Rio de Janeiro (Brazil). From 2012 to 2017 he worked at the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), first as Ambassador and Permanent Delegate of Germany and later as Representative of Germany to the Executive Board. From 2015 to 2017 he was Chair of the Executive Board of UNESCO. He also held a stint in the private sector, working as Director External Affairs and Public Policy at DaimlerChrysler. He holds a PhD from Technical University Berlin.

To register please send an email to Kathrin.Eisenhauer@uni-erfurt.de