Martin Heidegger and Manoel de Barros – Horizon Stretchers

The Brazilian poet Manoel de Barros and the German philosopher Martin Heidegger are both renowned for their profound and remarkable engagement with the simplicity of life and things. Questions of nothingness, the mystery of language, and the originality of words are among the central themes that shape the writings of both authors. The convergence of these two writers offers a glimpse into a unique dialogue between philosophy and poetry.

Dienstag, 17. Juni, 16-18 Uhr
