

Funded by

DFG Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft
German Research Foundation

Towards a New History of Calicut International Book Project Workshop

organized by

PG & Research Department of History
Farook College (Autonomous)

in association with

KFG “Religion and Urbanity” &
Max Weber Centre, University of Erfurt, Germany

The Workshop aims at finalising the concepts and methodologies for writing a new history of Calicut drawing from emerging frontiers of historical research.

You are cordially invited to the programme..

Yours sincerely

Dr. C A Anaz

Head, Department of History,
Farook College (Autonomous)

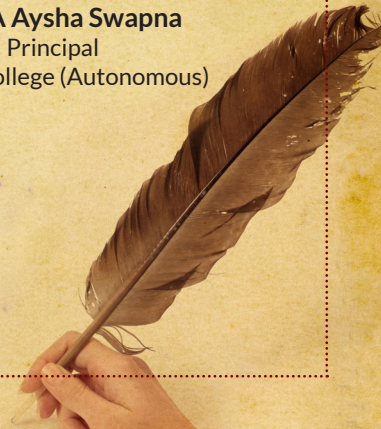

Dr. K A Aysha Swapna

Principal
Farook College (Autonomous)

Prof. Susanne Rau

Max Weber Centre,
University of Erfurt, Germany

Programme overleaf

Programme Schedule

Day 1 5 January, 2024

SESSION I:

Prof. Susanne Rau

Urban spaces in the perception of Arab,
Chinese and European travel writers

Dr. T Muhammedali

From Ernad to Vikramapuram:
The Zamorin's Foundation of a New City

SESSION II:

Dr. Selvakumar

Ports at the Malabar Coastline:
Natural ports, estuaries and the construction of Ports

Dr. C A Anaz

A Study of Place names at the Cityscapes of Kozhikode

Day 2 6 January, 2024

SESSION III:

Dr. Manjula Poyil & Dr. M R Manmathan

Medieval City Planning: Native and Cosmopolitan Elements in the Spatial Formations of Calicut

Dr. Shinoy Jesinth

Spatial Processes, Cartography, and Representation:
Mapping the Urban Landscape of Medieval Calicut

SESSION IV:

Dr. Abdul Nisar M

Cosmopolitanism in Microspaces: The Structure and Functions of Akams of Kuttichira in Calicut

Dr. Shumais U

Urban Life in Medieval Calicut: People and Trading regulations in Grandhavaris