Workshop

Mapping Spatial Relations, their Perceptions and Dynamics: the City Today and in the Past

May 18, 2012 | Venue I: Internationales Begegnungszentrum der Universität Erfurt, Michaelisstraße 38, Venue II: Am Hügel 1, Raum 406, Erfurt

Program

9.00 – 11.00 | Introduction, first lectures:
Susanne Rau (Erfurt): Welcome and Opening

Manel Guàrdia Bassols (Barcelona): Long-term structures of urban space. Barcelona as a case-study.

Ekkehard Schönherr (Erfurt): Elements of historical knowledge about urban spaces. Reflections on the requirements for a dynamic map.

11.00 – 11.30 | Coffee break

11.30 – 13.00 | Lecture and discussion:
Bernard Gauthiez/Olivier Zeller (Lyon): Lyon, the spatial analysis of a city in the 17-18th centuries. Locating and crossing data in a GIS built from written sources.

13.00 – 14.45 | Lunchtime, Change of location to venue II

14.45 – 16.45 | Lectures and discussion:
Richard Rodger (Edinburgh): The VUG-Project – Visualising Urban Geographies. (via Skype)

16.45 – 17.30 | Break, Change of location to venue I and Coffee

17.30 – 19.30 | Lecture and discussion, Conclusion:
Georg Gartner (Vienna): Putting emotions in maps – The wayfinding example.

Wolfgang Spickermann (Erfurt): Commentary

Final Discussion

Susanne Rau (Erfurt): Summary and Acknowledgement