The Treaty on European Union (TEU)

A Commentary

- Detailed explanations article by article
- Renowned authors’ team from ten European States
- Major contribution to the interpretation of the constitutional basis of the European Union

The major Commentary on the Treaty on European Union (TEU) is a European project that aims to contribute to the development of ever closer conceptual and dogmatic standpoints with regard to the creation of a “Europeanised research on Union law”. This publication in English contains detailed explanations, article by article, on all the provisions of the TEU as well as on several Protocols and Declarations, including the Protocols No 1, 2 and 30 and Declaration No 17, having steady regard to the application of Union law in the national legal orders and its interpretation by the Court of Justice of the EU. The authors of the Commentary are academics from ten European states and different legal fields, some from a constitutional law background, others experts in the field of international law and EU law professionals. This should lead to more unity in European law notwithstanding all the legitimate diversity. The different traditions of constitutional law are reflected and mentioned by name thus striving for a common framework for European constitutional law.

About the book:

The major Commentary on the Treaty on European Union (TEU) is a European project that aims to contribute to the development of ever closer conceptual and dogmatic standpoints with regard to the creation of a “Europeanised research on European law”. This publication in English contains detailed explanations, article by article, on all the provisions of the TEU as well as on several Protocols and Declarations, including the Protocols No 1, 2 and 30 and Declaration No 17, having steady regard to the application of EU law in the national legal orders and its interpretation by the Court of Justice of the EU. The authors of the Commentary are academics from different Member States and different legal fields, some from a constitutional law background, others experts in the field of international law and EU law professionals. The distinct academic orientation of the authors presents an opportunity for the Commentary in its analysis of European law to bring together different principles of interpretation as they crystallise out of the case law of the Court of Justice of the EU.

Hence, the crucial objective of this publication is to make the greatest possible progress on the interpretation of the constitutional basis of the Union whilst dealing with distinct national academic approaches on European law. This should lead to more unity in European law notwithstanding all the legitimate diversity. The different traditions of constitutional law are reflected and mentioned by name thus striving for a common framework for European constitutional law. The different languages of the European citizens - including the literature on the Union’s law - as well as the various traditions of national constitutions are regarded as the source of Europe’s wealth.

In the last six years the editors, Herm.-J. Blanke (University of Erfurt, Germany) and St. Mangiameli (National Research Council, Rome, Italy), have published with Springer in the area of European Public Law two volumes on the Treaty establishing a Constitution for Europe ("Governing Europe under a Constitution", 2006) and the Treaty of Lisbon ("The European Union after Lisbon", 2012).
